

Appendix S8. Sampling methods used to detect Amazonian manatees. a) Active visual search for individuals while following random navigation routes; b) Direct evidence of manatees breathing at the surface; c) Parallel transects from the margin to find indirect evidence of manatee presence; d) fresh scars on aquatic vegetation and e) floating feces of the species.

